

KINCUMBER

KINCUMBER BUCKET LIST

- Fuel up at the local Post Office. Drop by the charming outdoor courtyard of the Kincumber Post Café. This was actually the area's local post office from 1945 to 1990, now revamped to serve house-baked goods with a smile it is one of the Coast's many dog-friendly cafés too.
- Hike or cycle up Kincumba Mountain. Kincumba Mountain Reserve is one of the largest preserved rainforests on the Central Coast – and you can have a family picnic right on top of it! Explore the reserve's trails to find caves, palm groves, wildflowers, Aboriginal carvings and axe-grinding grooves, then stop for a lunch break or family BBQ.
- Cochrone Street warehouse wonders. The industrial soul of Kincumber – courtesy of its shipbuilding heritage – is showcased in the quirky modern businesses operating from warehouse spaces on Cochrone Street. Stop by LooLoo's Coffee Warehouse for a fresh brew, coffee beans and one of their incredible, buttery toasties. For a healthy kick, grab a nourish bowl from Bowlarama, another hidden local favourite.
- Playtime and pub feed for the family. Not only is Play Time at Kincumber Indoor Sports Centre a safe, colourful albeit hectic place for young kids to play, it's also perfect for rainy day entertainment. Kids can explore a range of inflatables, toys, cubby houses, swings and bike ramps within a large indoor space, and the handy Play Time Café sits on the sidelines for spectating parents.
- Scenic Drive highlights. Along the scenic coastal road that connects Kincumber to popular seaside towns Avoca Beach and Terrigal, you will find several boutiques and cafés worthy of a pitstop. While visiting, explore local artworks at the adjacent Green View Gallery. Stop for a shop at La Boheme Boutique in its unique bush-based location on the Scenic Highway.
- Cellar door tasting experiences. Kincumber has this funky warehouse thing going on, with a coffee warehouse, bowl bar and brewery all kitted out in local industrial spaces. Make sure to taste a paddle of Central Coast brewed beer at Block n Tackle Brewery, named after the shipbuilding history of the Brisbane Waters region.
- Grab a pocket full of posies. The Petal Sisters, create a mixed posy each Monday and Friday with market fresh flowers. More than a florist, they are a boutique lifestyle store on Avoca Drive selling artisan arrangements, fashion and homewares alongside floral styling for weddings, birthdays, corporate events and anniversaries.
- Walk, cycle or skate Kinny's parks and reserves. Explore Kincumber Broadwater by walking the Kincumber Jetty. Nearby there is a children's playground at Broadwater Park, with the picturesque waterfront walk that kids (or adults) can casually cycle along too. Kincumber is also a skateboarding hub, with two skating facilities – one in Frost Reserve and the other in South Kincumber recreation area.
- Explore Davistown Waterfront. Kincumber is well connected to nearby Davistown, where you will find the elegant Dart and Feather restaurant and bar. Offering impressive views of the Cockle Channel and Brisbane Water, this modern dining venue and its seafood focused menu is ideal for a Friday night sundowner, often with live music.
